World Allocation 60/40 Fund
Share Class: GBP Distributing Shares (ISIN: IE00B44MYD08)
a sub fund of Dimensional Funds Plc.

Objectives & Investment Policy

The aim is to increase the value of your investment over the long term and to earn income within the Fund. The Fund is managed on a discretionary basis and is known as a “Fund of Funds” which means that it mainly invests in other investment funds, but it may also invest directly in shares and debt. No more than 20% of the Fund’s net assets will be invested in any one investment Fund.

The Fund aims to invest approximately 60% of its net assets in shares (either directly or through investment in other investment funds). The Fund invests in investment funds to gain exposure to developed and emerging markets using a core strategy meaning that the Fund’s portfolio is generally overweighted in shares of smaller sized companies and value companies. Value companies are those where, at the time of purchase, the Investment Manager believes that the price is low compared to the accounting value of the company.

The composition of the Fund may be adjusted based on considerations such as the number of outstanding shares of public companies that are freely available to the investing public, the tendency of the price of a security/share to continue movement in a single direction, how readily available the shares are to buy and sell, and profitability.

The Fund uses a similar strategy when buying shares directly.

The Fund may invest up to 20% of its net assets in emerging markets countries (directly or through exposure of underlying Funds).

The Fund aims to invest approximately 40% of its net assets in debt (either directly or through investment in other investment funds). The Fund invests in investment funds which invest in high quality debt, such as bonds, money market instruments(short-term financial products which can be easily bought and sold on money markets) and commercial paper and certificates of deposits (short term debt products) issued by governments, other public bodies and companies in developed countries. The Fund may also invest directly in such debt.

The Fund may invest in bonds, the return on which depends on the currency values of its direct debt investments (known as currency hedging.) The Fund may also use derivatives in an attempt to protect your returns against exchange rate fluctuations between the currency of your share class and the base currency of the Fund (hedging).

Income is normally distributed twice yearly.

You may sell your investment in the Fund on demand on a daily basis.

The risk and reward category is calculated using historical data which may not be a reliable indicator of the Fund’s future risk profile.

The Fund may be subject to market risks, economic or political risks that may cause the share prices to fluctuate over time. This can affect the value of your investment in the Fund.

The Fund may use derivatives in an attempt to reduce risk (hedging) or for investment purposes. Derivatives can be a risky asset. They can be subject to risks such as counterparty, liquidity, interest rate, market, credit and management risks and improper valuation. The Fund, in turn, may be affected by this and the share price may fluctuate, which may result in a loss to the Fund.

The Fund may invest in other underlying funds. The Fund’s performance, costs and risks will be affected by the underlying funds. There can be no assurance that the investment objective of the underlying Fund will be achieved.

The Fund’s investments are subject to issuer-specific risks, market risks, economic or political risks that may cause the share prices to fluctuate over time. This can affect the value of your investment in the Fund.

The Fund may invest in smaller companies. This carries a higher risk as shares of small companies are often more difficult to sell than those of large companies, and as a result their share price can fluctuate more. In general, smaller companies are also more vulnerable than larger companies to adverse market conditions.

The Fund may seek to identify and invest in value shares, which are (in the Investment Manager’s view) shares, the prices of which are low compared to the accounting values of the companies issuing them. Value shares may perform differently from the market as a whole and following a value oriented investment strategy may cause the Fund, at times, to underperform funds that use other investment strategies.

The Fund may use derivatives in an attempt to reduce risk (hedging) or for investment purposes. Derivatives can be a risky asset. They can be subject to risks such as counterparty, liquidity, interest rate, market, credit and management risks and improper valuation. The Fund, in turn, may be affected by this and the share price may fluctuate, which may result in a loss to the Fund.

The Fund may invest in emerging markets (known as emerging) markets which can involve greater risks than well developed economies. Amongst other issues, decreased liquidity, political unrest and economic downturn may be more likely and could affect the value of your investment. Investment in emerging markets can be more expensive and challenging to buy, sell and withdraw investments. Investment in emerging markets also increases the risk of settlement default.

More information in relation to risks in general may be found in the "Risk Factors" section of the prospectus.
